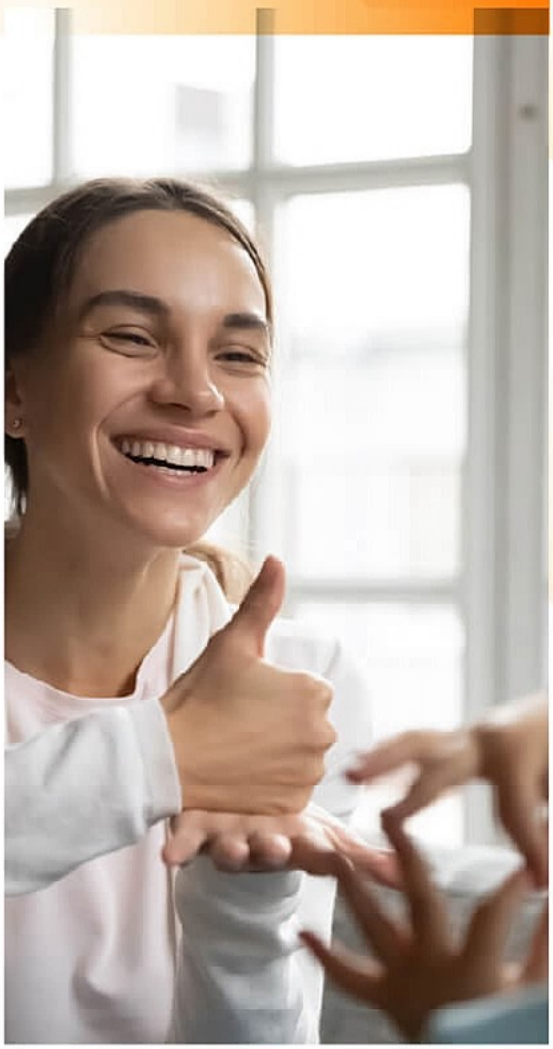
UNDERSTANDING NDIS

NDIS (National Disability Insurance Scheme) is an Australian program supporting people with disabilities. It provides personalised funding for services like assistive tech, personal care, and community participation. Participants craft a plan outlining their goals and necessary assistance, which is regularly checked to stay relevant.



MAJOR SUPPORT-FUNDED BY NDIS

The NDIS provides funding for three main types of supports:

- Core supports: These are everyday helps such as personal care, household chores, and mobility assistance.
- Capacity Building Supports: These help participants gain skills and confidence for daily activities and goal achievement.
- Capital Supports: These fund items like assistive tech and home modifications to boost participants' physical environment and accessibility.

NDIS ELIGIBILITY CHECK

To be eligible for the NDIS, applicants must:

- Be an Australian citizen, permanent resident, or hold a
- Protected Special Category Visa.
- Have a disability that significantly impacts daily life.
- Be under 65 at the time of application.
- Live in an area where the NDIS is available.
- For children under 6 with a developmental delay or disability, early intervention support may be available.
